ANZUP Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest Statement

Confidential Information

All members may have access to confidential information from time to time in relation to activities conducted or proposed to be conducted by ANZUP and our collaborators. Members will treat as confidential, and will refrain from disclosing, circulating, publishing or communicating all Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to which they have access or which is disclosed to them with or without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

Once each year, all members of the Australian and New Zealand Urogenital and Prostate Cancer Trials Group Ltd (ANZUP) Board, Scientific Advisory Committee (SAC) and study Principal Investigators will be asked to provide signed declaration forms describing any arrangements that have been entered into, or have been active, over the previous 12-month period. These declarations will be recorded in the minutes of the Board /SAC meeting. It is understood that information provided by the relevant members is for the purposes of disclosing potential conflicts of interest within the group, will not be put to any other purpose, and will be viewed only by the CEO and ANZUP Administrator.

Members of the ANZUP Board, SAC and study Principal Investigators must disclose all benefits received from all pharmaceutical companies currently providing financial support. This would include shares or direct personal benefit gained. Trial-specific or institutional funding does not need to be declared. A member would not be required to make a declaration where such declaration would be in breach of a confidentiality agreement.

Items for disclosure include any gifts or benefits received and its acceptance creates a material conflict of interest. Acceptance of a gift or benefit by an immediate family member may also create a material conflict of interest. This includes cash and in-kind, hospitality, gifts, subsidies or research grants.
